SPECIALETTA DEL VENERDI SERA

Paese storico della Ciociaria: ACUTO

Il nome di Acuto (pop. 1844 abitanti, a 748 m. s.l.m e a 34 km. Nord-Ovest da Frosinone), deriva dalla caratteristica forma della sua montagna. E' uno dei centri del Cesanese, in un luogo straordinariamente panoramico sulla Valle del Sacco e sulla campagna romana. La leggenda lo vuole fondato nel 450 d.C. dagli Anagnini, ma i ritrovamenti archeologici testimoniano che la sua nascita è molto più remota e si può far risalire all'epoca preromana. Feudo del vescovo di Anagni, che ancora oggi s'intitola terra Acuti dominus, ha basato a lungo la propria economia prevalentemente sull'attività pastorale ed agricola. Il castello medioevale che sorge al centro del paese costituisce uno dei monumenti più importanti, mentre una particolare attenzione va ai numerosi ed eleganti portali che adornano il centro storico. Da ricordare, inoltre, la chiesa di S. Maria di Acuto, particolarmente notevole per l'omonima statua lignea del sec. XIII, forse dono di Bonifacio VIII, che oggi si trova nel museo di Palazzo Venezia a Roma. Questa chiesa meritò il nome di "Chiesa Anticlericale" perché gli esecutori, che la restaurarono e ornarono con stucchi negli anni 1861-73, effigiarono in bassorilievo un'aquila (casa reale) che si avventava su un corvo (Clero).

Acuto (pop.: 1844, elev.: 748 m. a.s.l. and at 34 km. N.W. of Frosinone). The name of this town derives from the sharp pointed form of its mountain - "acute". One of the towns comprised in the Cesanese area, Acuto affords the most stunning views, which take in the magnificence of the Sacco Valley and Roman Plain countryside. According to legend, the town was founded in 450 AD by the inhabitants of Anagni; however, evidence provided from archeological findings suggests an era that is much more remote, probably pre-Roman. Once the earldom of the Bishop of Anagni, it still holds the title Terra Acuti Dominus. For centuries the town has had an economy predominantly based on agricultural and pastoral activities. In the center of Acuto, stand the ramparts of a splendid medieval castle, which comprises one of the most important monumental structures in the town, whereas particular attention must also be given to numerous and elegant portals, which adorn the town. The Church of S. Maria di Acuto is also worth recalling; it is particularly noted for its 13th century wooden statue which bears the same name, (apparently a donation by Pope Boniface VIII), and which is currently on display in Rome's Museo di Palazzo Venezia. This church earned the title of "anticlerical", because those responsible for its restoration and stucco decoration in 1861-73 sculptured a bas-reliefs featuring an eagle (symbol of the Monarchy) hurling itself on a crow (symbol of the Church).

VIA CRUCIS / STATIONS OF THE CROSS

held on April 14, 2017

Once again, the sun shone for us on this Good Friday, as Jesus and the crowd made their way around the chapel stopping at the 14 stations which marked the place where Jesus had his encounters and falls.

In the Chapel Maria Di Gioia began with a prayer and introduction in Italian as Loretta Gabr repeated in English. Then Jesus and the disciples appeared and seated themselves at the Last Supper table. There Jesus broke the bread and shared his blood with them and then took them to the garden to pray. And thus it began, with the betrayal of Judas! Pilate washed his hands of Him and then he took his crown of thorns and the cross.

The Voci Ciociare sang as they processed after Mary and the crowd.

Maria di Gioia and Annalisa Rossi read alternately at each station in Italian and English reciting readings and prayers as the crowd responded and the Voci sang refrains. We circled the Chapel and ended back inside for the final Sepulchre scene. Maria recited a few more readings and the Voci sang their final hymn.

Congratulations to all the actors who had speaking roles and those who dressed up and participated as well for the other (but just as important) non-speaking roles. A huge amount of gratitude goes to those who had to play multiple roles due to lack of volunteers or illness.

Thank you for a wonderful uplifting and meaningful performance, once again! We extend our gratitude to all those who came to follow in Christ's footsteps!! Thank you to Delfina and the Voci group for adding their voices to our re-enactment! To Maria, Loretta and the S. Gerardo committee, congratulations!

45TH ANNUAL MEMBERS' BANQUET

On April 22, 2017, the town of Boville Ernica was awarded the title of Comune dell'Anno at the 45th Annual Banquet. The Mayor, Piero Fabrizi, sent written greetings and a small delegation to accept this prestigious award. We were honoured to greet Assessore Daniele Paluzzi and along with him were the President of the Proloco di Boville Ernica, Alvaro Piacentini and the Regional Coordinator of Lazio and Sardegna and the National Association "Borghi Piu' Belli d'Italia", Anthony Astolfi.

The evening began with a procession of the Club's Sergeants-at-arms Joe Viselli and Joe De Benedetti bearing the Italian and Canadian flags. Club member, Paolo Perciballi, proudly carried the standard of his hometown beside Anthony Astolfi. Anna Vozza, Vice President and Alvaro Piacentini carried the large frame showing all the Towns of the Year, including Boville Ernica. Giulio Malandruccolo and Mirella Cervini followed and lastly entered the guest of honour Daniele Paluzzi.

Then there was the usual exchange of emblems and plaques between the Assessore from Boville Ernica Daniele Paluzzi and the Club's president Giulio Malandruccolo. After the anthems to Ciociaria, Italy and Canada were sung by the Voci Ciociare. Master of Ceremonies, Jack Ramieri asked for a moment of silence for the deceased members as Nina Gidillini and Giulio lit the memorial candle. Father Adriano Barbieri said Grace and then special toasts were offered by Gary McNamara, Mayor of Tecumseh, Anna Vozza, Vice President and Anthony Astolfi, Regional Coordinator of Lazio and Sardegna, to Italy, Ciociaria and Canada, respectively.

Cristina Timperio and her Folklore dance group entertained us during the start of dinner as Alessandro De Luca accompanied them on the accordion. Great job as always!

After dinner, eight $1000 bursaries were handed out, four from the Ciociaro Club and four from local generous sponsors. The Club's Youth and Culture Chairperson, Antonio Ciotoli congratulated the 2017 recipients, Joshua Vitella, Noah Greco, Alessia Montemurri, Noah Kuehfuss, Ava Recchia, Lorenzo Pernasilei, Arianna D'Agostini and Cerina D'Agostini. The Club wishes them good luck in their future endeavours!!

Thank you to our Bursary sponsors, Fazio & Giorgi,

Our Entertainment

LLP, RBC Royal Bank, Paul Maini, Chartered Accountant, and Swing It For Youth Ciociaro Club Golf.

This year, there were 81 members who achieved the distinction of 25 years of continuous membership! It was wonderful to see such a great many of the silver pin recipients present to accept their pin in person. CONGRATULATIONS!

We heard some wonderful greetings from Gary McNamara, Mayor of Tecumseh, Lorenzo Di Salvo, Vice Consul of Italy, Anthony Astolfi, Regional Coordinator of Lazio and Sardegna, guest of honour Daniele Paluzzi, Assessore of the Town of Boville Ernica and finally Giulio Malandruccolo, President.

It is always a pleasure to listen to a speaker at our banquet and show our respect, especially when that person is the guest of honour. Assessore Daniele Paluzzi impressed us with the video presentation of his beautiful town of Boville Ernica. Most of us enjoyed his speech, not because it was short, but because it was heartfelt and when he said "I feel I must speak the language of the country I am in", with his broken English, he complimented the Ciociari here tonight and thanked them and invited them to his lovely Boville Ernica so that he and the mayor could reciprocate their hospitality. The response was an uproarious applause!!!

Thank you to all the members who attended the Banquet!!! The hall was beautiful, the meal delicious and the music by Fantasia fantastic! Well done organizing committee!! Thank you, Laura Tiberia and crew!!
