Paese storico della Ciociaria: CEPRANO

Ceprano: abitanti, 8600; altitudine, m. 100 s.l.m.; Km. 20 a est di Frosinone.

Il sito sul quale sorge l'odierna Ceprano si sviluppò contemporaneamente alla colonia latina di Fregellae (328-125 a.C.), poiché vi sorgeva un abitato (Fregellanum) nel punto in cui la via Latina, proveniente da Roma, attraversava il fiume Liri tramite un ponte. Col nome di Cepararium, forse derivato dal nome della famiglia Ceparia, la città acquistò rilevanza nel medioevo per la sua posizione geografico-militare e fu al centro di importanti avvenimenti storici. Qui papa Gregorio VII investì Roberto il Guiscardo del trono di Puglia; qui, nella cappella di Santa Giusta, Federico II nel 1230 fu assolto dalla scomunica; qui venne re Manfredi, nel 1254, a giurare fedeltà a Innocenzo IV e subì l'umiliazione di attraversare tutto il ponte sul Liri reggendo, in segno di sottomissione, le briglie del cavallo del papa; e, più avanti nei secoli, qui Gioacchino Murat si scontrò con le truppe austriache e fu sconfitto. In parte nel territorio di Ceprano sorge il Parco Archeologico dove si stanno effettuando scavi sistematici per riportare alla luce l'antica Fregellae e molti reperti sono custoditi nel locale museo. Da visitare inoltre la chiesa di S. Antonio Abate (sec. XVI), un capolavoro monumentale restaurato di recente insieme al caratteristico Convento. Il Ceprano di oggi, è un paese moderno, dinamico e con un mercato, il sabato, che fa invidia a tanti altri paesi della Ciociaria. La sua agricoltura rimane sempre competitiva, anche grazie alle acque abbondanti dei fiumi Liri e Sacco, ma anche dai ricchi depositi di acqua sotterranei. Grazie alla sua posizione geografica, Ceprano ha il privilegio di essere attraversato da ferrovia e autostrada che lo collegano facilmente dalla Sicilia al resto dell'Europa. Ceprano è sito di moltissimi eventi annuali come numerose feste religiose e almeno 3 importanti fiere degli animali.

Ceprano: residents, 8600; elevation, 100m. a.s.l.; location, 20 Km. east of Frosinone. The Latin colony of Fregellae and the site on which Ceprano rests today developed together (328-125 BC) for that site (Fregellanum) stood where the Via Latina crossed the river Liri. With the name of Cepararium, derived maybe from the family name Ceparia, the city acquired importance during the Medieval period for its geo-military position and was the centre of important historical events. Here Pope Gregory VII invested Roberto il Guiscardo with the throne of Puglia; Frederick II was absolved of his excommunication in 1230; in 1254, King Manfred swore fidelity to Innocenzo IV undergoing the humiliation of crossing the Liri bridge holding the reins of the Pope's horse; some centuries later Joachim Murat met up with the Austrian troops and was defeated. Ceprano's territory has also an Archaeological Park where intensive digs are being carried out to bring to light the ancient Fregellae. Many of the finds are now on display in the town's museum. Another place to visit is the Church of S. Anthony Abbot (16th cent.), which is a monumental masterpiece, recently restored together with the original Convent. Current day Ceprano, is a modern, dynamic town, with an open market on Saturdays, that is the envy of many other towns in Ciociaria. Its agriculture is always competitive, not only thanks to the rich soil and to the abundance of water of the Sacco and Liri rivers, but also due to its rich underground aquifers. Thanks to its geographical position, Ceprano has the great privilege of being crossed through, not only by a main railroad, but also by a major expressway, both of which, easily link this town anywhere, from Sicily to the rest of Europe.

Ceprano holds many yearly religious festivals and at least three important fairs of animals.

ELECTION NEWS

This is an election year and the members are reminded of the following by-law provisions:

1. A Nominating Committee composed of the President and three (3) other Directors appointed by the Board of Directors will be constituted at the October Board meeting.
2. The Nominating Committee will present its report along with the slate of candidates at the November General Assembly meeting. Further nominations may be made by General Members in good standing from the floor at said General Meeting. Such nominee may be added to the slate of candidates by being present at said meeting and accepting the nomination.
3. Electors shall be composed of General Members who have been in good standing for a minimum of one (1) year as of the October meeting of the General Assembly meeting prior to the election.
4. The Chief Election Officer and the Election Committee shall organize and conduct the election of Officers, Directors, Sergeant-at-Arms and Trustees which will be held within the first fifteen (15) days of January.

5. The Chief Election Officer and the Assistant Chief Election Officer will be appointed by the Board at its October meeting.
6. The five (5) members of the Election Committee will be elected by the General Assembly at its meeting in November. Members of the Election Committee cannot be related by blood or marriage to any candidate for office. The definition of consanguinity is defined in accordance with legal impediments in respect of eligibility for marriage in Canada (i.e. lineal, brother, sister, brother/sister-in-Law. etc.).
7. At the November meeting the Assembly will elect at least ten (10) scrutineers who will assist the Election Committee during election process and in the counting of votes.
8. The Board will be setting dates for election day, advanced polling dates and meet the candidate forum and will report these dates at the November General Assembly meeting.
9. The Treasurer will post a complete list of General Members deemed to be in good standing. Members are encouraged to review this list of eligible voters to confirm its accuracy and any such issues should be reported to the Treasurer or the Chief Election Officer.

AGGIORNAMENTO PER LE PROSSIME ELEZIONI

Siamo vicini alle prossime elezioni e ricordiamo ai nostri soci le seguenti regole generali come espresse nella Costituzione:

1. Sarà formato un Comitato di Nomina incluso il Presidente e tre (3) altri Direttori nominati dal Consiglio di Amministrazione durante la riunione del Consiglio di ottobre.
- 2 . Il Comitato di Nomina presenterà il suo resoconto con la lista dei candidati alla riunione dell'Assemblea Generale di novembre. Altre nomine possono essere fatte da Soci Generali in piena regola durante tale riunione. Gli eventuali nominati saranno aggiunti alla lista sopraindicata, purché essi siano presenti alla riunione e accettino la nomina.
3. Gli elettori dovranno essere Soci Generali ed essere stati in piena regola per almeno un (1) anno il 28 ottobre 2018, giorno della Riunione Generale di tale mese.
- 4 . Il Capo Ufficiale Elettorale e il Comitato Elettorale dovranno organizzare e condurre l'elezione degli Ufficiali, dei Direttori, Uscieri e Fiduciari. Tale elezione avrà luogo entro la prima metà di gennaio 2019.
5. Il Capo Ufficiale Elettorale e il suo assistente saranno nominati dal Consiglio di Amministrazione durante la loro riunione di ottobre.
6. I cinque (5) membri del Comitato Elettorale saranno eletti dall'Assemblea Generale durante la riunione di novembre. I membri del Comitato Elettorale non possono essere strettamente imparentati con nessuno dei candidati, inclusi cognati/cognate.
- 7 . Durante la riunione di Novembre, l'Assemblea eleggerà almeno dieci (10) scrutatori, i quali presteranno assistenza al Comitato Elettorale durante le elezioni e nel contare i voti.
8. Il Consiglio di Amministrazione fisserà le date delle elezioni anticipate e di quella finale. Inoltre fisserà la data per il forum "meet the candidates" e annuncerà tali date all'Assemblea Generale durante la riunione di novembre.
9. Il Tesoriere pubblicherà la lista completa dei Soci Generali in piena regola. I Soci sono incoraggiati di esaminare tale lista e comunicare eventuali errori al Tesoriere, oppure al Capo Ufficiale Elettorale.

MADONNA DI CANNETO FESTIVAL - AUG. 19

It was a beautiful day to celebrate the thirty-first Anniversary of the Madonna di Canneto! White doves and balloons were released as the Madonna was lifted carefully by six devoted men wearing white robes and red capes! The Banda Liri from Leamington played Madonna hymns followed by the Voci Ciociare singing in procession . Flags and various banners were carried by their proud group members who came from from various cities to honour the Madonna. Also there, faithful as ever, were members of the Knights of Columbus! Five lovely little girls carefully scattered flower and rose petals in front of the statue. Father Licciardi, Father Restivo, Father Barbiero along with president Malandruccolo and Maria di Gioia were also in procession to the Main Hall for the Mass.

The St. Angela Choir sang as the procession entered and continued with more beautiful hymns throughout the mass. There were Bersaglieri and Italian Polizia guarding Maria S.S. along the procession and at her place at the front corner of the “altar”. Readings were done by Teresa Di Domenico and Anna Vozza and prayers of the faithful by Loretta Gabr and Silvana Patella in English, Italian, French and Spanish. Father Licciardi gave a beautiful homily. A final procession took place around the long track of the Club with many followers, stopping at the summit for prayers . Then the group made its way back to the chapel where the Madonna was placed at the front and people could sit, pray or meditate quietly.

Several different bouncy style areas were available for the kids and bocce and soccer games were taking place around the Club. Delicious food was available under the pavilion, as well as in the main building. Also, ciambelle and crustole were sold at a booth outside. Delicious gelato and espresso were available all afternoon from Guardaluna Cafe'.

Entertaining the crowd were the Leamington Choir from the Roma Club, the Ciociaro Folklore Children's Dance group as well as as the Voci Ciociare. For our musical enjoyment the club provided us the trio of Dan, Lou and Carmine on accordion, guitar and mandolin! They were wonderful!!!

At 8:30 p.m., there was a candlelight mass in front of the Chapel, followed by a procession around the Chapel. A fantastic firework display ended the day!

A special thank you is sent to the St. Angela Choir for gracing us at both masses!

We also wish to show our sincere appreciation to all those who attended and we know that the Madonna will continue to bless you!!

Thank you to Tony Ciotoli and the organizing committee and to the many volunteers who helped make this day a success!

EVVIVA MARIA!!

ST. ONORIO FESTIVAL - JULY 8

Il 36esimo St Onorio Festival e' stato un successo. La Messa e' stata celebrata da Padre Daniele Criscione nella Chiesa di St. Charbel, assistito da un giovane seminarista John Vinton di origine casalverana e nipote di Doro Vitella. Per tale occasione sentiamo il dovere di ringraziare Padre Daniele e i suoi assistenti. Grazie alla famiglia Vitella e D'Onofrio per l'accompagnamento musicale. Ringrazio il Ciociaro Club, le Voci Ciociare, gli organizzatori per i giochi dei bambini e coloro che hanno organizzato il "car show". Inoltre ringraziamo coloro che da tanti anni organizzano il torneo delle bocce. Grazie ancora a tutti presenti venuti da vicino e da lontano per onorare Santo Onorio.

Questo Festival da anni unisce famiglie dandoci la possibilita' di incontrarci, ha dato ai nostri figli il modo di riaggrupparsi, socializzare e conoscerci, soprattutto ci educa al continuo ricordo delle nostre origini in modo che le generazioni dell'avvenire ricorderanno le loro radici.

Il Comitato di St. Onorio

The 36th St. Onorio Festival was a success! The mass was celebrated at St. Charbel Church by Father Daniel Criscione with the assistance of a young seminarian, John Vinton, who has roots from Casalvieri being the grandson of Doro Vitella. For this occasion we must thank Father Daniel and his assistants. Thank you to the Vitella and D'Onofrio families for their beautiful musical accompaniment.

We thank the Ciociaro Club, the Voci Ciociare, the coordinators of the children's games and activities and the organizers of the magnificent car show! The St. Onorio committee would also like to thank those who have organized for many years the Bocce tournament.

We appreciate and extend our sincerest thank you to those who were present and who came from near or long distances to honour Santo Onorio!!

This Festival, for years, has brought together families; it has given our children a way to reunite, socialize and get to know each other; above all it reminds us of our origins in a way that future generations will forever remember their roots!

The St. Onorio Committee

MAYOR OF CEPRANO VISIT - JULY 26

On Thursday July 26th the Ciociaro Club proudly hosted an evening in honour of Mr. Marco Galli, the Mayor of Ceprano, Frosinone, Italy. This was part of a three city tour which also allowed his delegation to visit Toronto and Detroit. The main purpose of the trip was to become acquainted with the Cepranese and Ciociaro communities abroad and to search opportunities to strengthen these relationships going into the future.

Over 140 members participated in this unique event which included performances by both the Voci Ciociare and the Ciociaro Club's Youth Folklore Dance Group. Greetings from the Club were generously extended by our President Mr. Giulio Malandruccolo and he presented gifts to the Mayor and the other members of his delegation, Mrs. Valentina Di Folco and Mrs. Anna Letizia Celani. A special thank you is extended to the Organizing Committee who worked diligently to bring you this event. They include Armando Carlini, Susan Del Greco-Keelan, Teresa Di Domenico, Rocco Maiuri, Jack Ramieri, Bruno Tomaselli and Frank Maceroni.

by Frank Maceroni

Giovedì, 26 luglio il Ciociaro Club orgogliosamente ospitò una serata di allegria in onore del Sig. Marco Galli, sindaco di Ceprano, Frosinone. Questo fece parte di una tournée di tre città, la quale gli diede la possibilità di visitare anche Toronto e Detroit. Lo scopo principale di tale giro, fu quello di familiarizzarsi con le società cepranesi e ciociare all'estero e di esplorare delle opportunità per rinforzare questi legami per il futuro.

Più di 140 soci parteciparono a questo particolare evento, il quale incluse le esibizioni delle Voci Ciociare e quelle del Gruppo Folkloristico Giovanile del Ciociaro Club. Il Presidente Giulio Malandruccolo offrì generosamente i suoi omaggi e regali al Sig. Galli e agli altri membri della sua delegazione, la Signora Valentina Di Folco e la Signora Anna Letizia Celani. Uno speciale ringraziamento viene anche tutt'ora offerto al Comitato che organizzò l'evento, il quale lavorarò con molta efficienza ed eleganza. I membri furono Armando Carlini, Susan Del Greco-Keelan, Rocco Maiuri, Jack Ramieri, Bruno Tomaselli e Frank Maceroni.

4th Annual Ciociaro Club Kids' Club Summer Camp 2018

This year, 2018 was another successful year for our annual Ciociaro Club Kids' Club Summer Camp! We would like to thank our teachers Miss Ava Puzzuoli and Miss Lisa Morra for their hard work and dedication in facilitating the camp. We would also like to thank the many volunteers throughout the 2 weeks who helped make the camp extra fun.

The camp ran for 2 weeks with 44 children participating ages 5-13. Campers took part in many Italian inspired games and activities throughout the weeks. They made pizza from scratch and learned how to play bocce and soccer. They brought home newly learned Italian words to share with their families, and most importantly a great understanding and respect for Italian culture and their heritage.

We look forward to our camp growing more and more in the years to come! Keep an eye out for information for our 2019 summer camps in the Spring.

FROSINONE CALCIO SOCCER TEAM VISIT

This past summer, the Ciociaro Club was very proud to host Frosinone Calcio, a Series A professional soccer team from Frosinone, Italy.

We were most excited to bring them to Windsor, Essex County, which was a unique and rare experience for the Italian and Ciociaro communities.

The team participated in the “Tour di Canada” and was hosted by our Ciociaro Club at an evening banquet in their honour!

They also played a great game against the Detroit FC in their stadium, and were victorious with a score of 10-0! The game was sold out entirely and broke a record for the Detroit FC stadium!

We are very proud to have shared this experience with our members and the Italian community.

CIOCIARIA: A HERITAGE YOU CAN BE PROUD OF!

AMEDEO MAIURI

Amedeo Maiuri, nacque a Veroli (ove il padre era procuratore), il 7 gennaio 1886, da Giuseppe ed Elena Parsi. Dopo la separazione dei genitori fu affidato alle cure della nonna paterna e in questa casa mosse i primi passi. A Ceprano completo' tutto il corso delle elementari; qui, nella verde spaziosità dei campi, lungo le rive del fiume Liri e nella cerchia meravigliosa sugli orizzonti degli Ernici, dei Lepini e degli Ausoni, sentì schiudere la sua giovinezza e da qui un giorno usci per "andare incontro al suo luminoso destino". Divenne infatti in giovanissima età, un archeologo stimato a livello internazionale. Dopo una prima esperienza a Creta, nel 1914, fu direttore della Missione Archeologica Italiana dell'Egeo e compì varie esplorazioni nelle isole del Dodecaneso e in Anatolia. Fu proprio in questi anni che sistemò e diresse il Museo archeologico di Rodi. In questi dieci anni fece delle importanti scoperte che lo appassionarono sempre di più al mondo dell'archeologia. Dopo la parentesi di Rodi, all'età di trentotto anni, tornò in Italia e divenne soprintendente alle Antichità della Campania e del Molise e direttore degli scavi di Pompei ed Ercolano. All'università di Napoli fu titolare della Cattedra di Antichità pompeiane ed ercolanensi. Fu anche accademico dei Lincei. Divenne già in età giovanissima archeologo stimato a livello internazionale. La sua intensa attività di archeologo fu sempre affiancata da tempestive pubblicazioni dei risultati delle indagini di scavo. Fra monografie, articoli e guide, gli si attribuiscono più di trecento pubblicazioni. Fra i suoi libri si ricordano: Guida di Rodi (1922); Pompei (1928); La villa dei Misteri (1930); Passeggiate Campane (1950); Aspetti ignoti e poco noti di Pompei (1962). Si spense a Napoli il 7 Aprile 1963 all'età di 77 anni.

Amedeo Maiuri, was born in Veroli, January 7, 1886, where his father worked as an attorney. After the separation of his parents, he was brought up by his paternal grandmother. He attended the complete program of the elementary school in Ceprano, among the green spaces of the fields along the river banks of the Liri and surrounded by the magnificent Ernici, Lepini and Ausoni mountain chains, seen in the distance. It is here that Amedeo opened to his life and went "forward, towards his luminous destiny". He became, in fact, a brilliant and worldwide esteemed archeologist. After a first experience at Creta in 1914, he became the director of the Italian Archeology Mission of the Aegean and accomplished many discoveries on the islands of Dodecanese and in Anatolia. It was during these years that he arranged and directed the archeology museum of Rodi. In these 10 years he became more and more involved with archeology due to the important discoveries he had found. After the period of Rodi, at the age of 38, he returned to Italy and became supervisor of the Antiquities of Campania and of Molise and also director of the excavations of Pompei and Ercolano. He had also been professor of Pompeian and Herculaneum Antiquity at the university of Naples, as well as member of the Academy of the Lincei. For his young age he had already become very well known at an international level. His hard work as an archeologist was always followed by publicized results of his excavations and more than 300 publications, including monographs, articles and guides, were produced. These are some of his books: Guide of Rodi (1922); Pompei (1928); The Villa of Mysteries (1930); Countryside Walks (1950); Unknown aspects of Pompei (1962).

He died at the age of 77 in Naples on April, 7, 1963.

CHEF'S CORNER: Lemon Amaretto Tiramisu

Ingredients:

1-1/2 cup sliced natural (skin-on) almonds
1 egg white
2 cups granulated sugar
12 egg yolks
4 teaspoons grated lemon zest
1 cup lemon juice
1 cup cold butter cubed
1/3 cup amaretto liqueur
18 lady finger cookies (4" long)
1 tub mascarpone cheese
2 cups icing sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
2-1/2 cups whipping cream 35%

Directions:

Toss almonds with egg white to coat, stir in 1/4 cup of the sugar until combined. Spread on parchment paper-lined rimmed baking sheet. Bake in 350°F oven stirring once until golden, about 12 minutes. Let cool on sheet. (Make ahead; store in airtight container for up to 2 days)

While almonds are baking, in large heatproof bowl, whisk together egg yolks, 1-1/2 cups sugar, lemon zest and lemon juice. Place bowl over saucepan of simmering water; cook, stirring, until thick enough to coat the back of a spoon, about 12 minutes. Remove from heat; stir in butter 1 tbsp at a time. Strain through fine mesh sieve into clean bowl. Place plastic wrap directly on the surface. Refrigerate until curd is thick enough to mound firmly on spoon, about 1 hour. (Make-ahead, refrigerate up to 2 days)

While lemon curd is chilling, in saucepan cook remaining sugar with 1/4 cup water over medium heat, stirring until sugar is dissolved. Remove from heat; let cool completely. Stir in amaretto. Quickly dip both sides of lady fingers in amaretto mixture and arrange in single layer in 13x9-inch baking dish.

In large bowl, beat together mascarpone, icing sugar and vanilla until smooth. In separate bowl, beat 1 1/2 cups of the cream until soft peaks form; fold into mascarpone mixture. Spoon mixture over ladyfingers, spreading to edges. Spread lemon curd evenly over top. Cover and refrigerate for 12 hours. (Refrigerate for up to 24 hours. Let stand at room temperature for 10 minutes before continuing recipe.)

In bowl, beat remaining cream until stiff peaks form. Spoon over lemon curd, leaving border of curd. Sprinkle with almonds.

BUON APPETITO!!!
