GENERAL ASSEMBLY MEETING

LIVE NATIVITY PRESENTATION

On December 8, 2019 a live Nativity presentation was held again at the Madonna di Canneto Chapel. After many Sunday afternoon practice sessions held in the weeks leading to the re-enactment under the leadership of Maria Di Gioia, the play was fantastic. Thanks to the narrators Loreta Gabr and Silvana Patella. Italo Patella portrayed Joseph and Isabella Gallucci the Virgin Mary. Thank you to many, many other

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT

My fellow members,

Welcome back from your holidays. I hope that each of you had a holiday season blessed with health and happiness.

The Ciociaro Club has had its best year yet in 2019! We have seen double digit growth in our business, increased profitability, improved service offerings and more Club events than ever before. We have had a continued growth in our General Membership and Junior Membership and are excited about the opportunities we are working to offer our members this year.

We have current plans in place to implement the following over the year:

- Door entrance improvements for our north and west sides
- Members bar table and chair refurbishing and replacement

- Membership profitability disbursement – offering direct funding to our groups to enable them to offer more services to their members, and encourage a junior membership engagement
- We are establishing a committee to begin discussions around a retirement complex on site
- We have received your approval for our capital budget and will be working diligently to address some critical items required throughout the Club

On behalf of the Board of Directors, I would like to thank all of you for your support, encouragement and time that each of you give to the Ciociaro Club, whether it is big or small. Every action is felt throughout our community and within these walls, from attending a banquet, coming to a barbecue, volunteering, speaking highly of our Club, or sharing a facebook post or Instagram message.

I look forward to seeing you at one of the many upcoming events and barbecues and encourage each of you to come and be a part of our amazing Club.

Saluti

Mark Rossi, President

Entertainment Committee

Thank you to all those who participated in our 2019 events, the committee works hard to organize the events and we truly appreciate your support. This year's events have been confirmed and are listed below.

Wine Tours	May 24, July 5, September 20
Frankenmuth Trips	July 25, November 29th
Cooking Classes	April 7, June 8, December 1
Whisky Nights	April 16, October 15

Additional events will be posted as they are announced throughout the year.

Frankenmuth Trip December 1, 2019 - The Frankenmuth trip was well attended with 102 people participating. The buses made stops at Bronners Christmas Village, Baldwin Commons, Target, and The Town of Frankenmuth. Stay tuned for more information about our two upcoming trips this year!

Entertainment Chair

Looking for Volunteers

Armando Carlini is looking for volunteers to add to the Newsletter committee. If you are interested and have some free time and have skills in editing and have a knowledge of grammar and the Italian language, please give him a call or leave a message at the Club with your name and number. Club 519-737-6153 or Armando 519-816-4874.

ENTERTAINMENT

Mangia for Men's Health was held on Friday November 29, 2019 at the Ciociaro Club. The event was organized to help raise money for the Windsor Cancer Centre Foundation and to help commemorate Men's Health Month. The event was attended by well over 120 people and sponsored by 20 local businesses. Our final total raised and donated to the Cancer Foundation was $6125.00. I would like to thank the organizing committee for all of your hard work and dedication. Thank you to all who participated and donated. This year's event will be held on November 27, our goal is to raise $10,000.

Paese storico della Ciociaria: AUSONIA

Ausonia e' una cittadina panoramica che sorge tra i monti Aurunci ed e' attraversata dalla strada regionale SR630 Cassino-Formia. Circondata da splendidi uliveti, le sue case sono di pietra grigia, i suoi orti e giardini sono terrazzamenti costruiti con muri a secco. Con il suo antico nome "Castrum Fractae" compare tra i possedimenti dell'Abbazia di Montecassino. Solo nel 1862, dopo l'unita' d'Italia, divenne Ausonia. Interessanti e numerosi sono i suoi monumenti. Tra essi ricordiamo la Collegiata di S. Michele Arcangelo, sorta sui resti di et  romana, con facciata romanica e tre portali di stile gotico; da notare presso l'entrata le due acquasantiere ricavate da are votive romane. Il Castello, donato nel 1065 a Montecassino dai principi di Capua,   costruzione militare ma anche residenziale. In pietra viva   costruita S. Maria a Castello con l'elegante campanile. Il Santuario di Santa Maria del Piano   notevole per gli affreschi dell'XI secolo, custoditi nella cripta, che illustrano la storia del miracolo di S. Remicarda e per il polittico di G. B. Crisculo. Ma soprattutto interessanti sono i passaggi coperti, le scalinate, le strette vie e piazzette su cui si affacciano palazzi settecenteschi, con bei portali e suggestive bifore dalle cornici catalane. E tutto questo d  un senso di quiete e di pacata austerit .

Abitanti: 2590; altitudine: m. 178 s.l.m.; localit : 35 km. a sud-est di Frosinone; piatti tipici, come nel resto della maggioranza della Ciociaria.

Ausonia is beautifully set among the Aurunci Mountains and it's crossed by the Regional Road 630 (SR630) Cassino-Formia. Surrounded by olive groves, its houses are made of gray stone, its orchards and gardens are terraces built with dry stone walls. With its ancient name "Castrum Fractae" it was among the possessions of the Abbey of Montecassino. Only in 1862, after the unification of Italy, it became Ausonia. Interesting are its numerous monuments. Among these are the Collegiate Church of St. Michael the Archangel, built on the remains of the Romanesque period, with a Romanesque fa ade and three portals in Gothic style; note at the entrance the two holy water fonts which are derived from Roman votives. The Castle, donated in 1065 to Montecassino by the princes of Capua, is of military construction but also residential. In living stone is built St. Mary in the Castle with the elegant bell tower. The Sanctuary of Santa Maria del Piano is notable for the frescoes of the eleventh century, preserved in the crypt, which illustrate the story of the miracle of St. Remicarda and for the polyptych of G. B. Crisculo. But most interesting sights of all are the cloisters, the covered passageways, staircases, narrow streets and small squares overlooked by eighteenth century buildings, with beautiful doors and mullioned windows suggestive of Catalan frames. All of this gives a sense of peace and quiet austerity.

Population: 2590; altitude: m. 178 a.s.l.; distance from Frosinone: km. 35 (SW).
Typical dishes: as in the rest of most of Ciociaria actors, too numerous to mention by name who took part representing the young angels, shepherds, inn-keepers, soldiers, Wise Men, Zachary and Elizabeth, Angel Gabriel, King Herod, the drummer boy and the many other people bringing gifts to baby Jesus. The Voci Ciociare group dressed in their Christmas colours participated in the play and sang Christmas songs.

The play was immensely enjoyed by all who came to watch. A dinner followed at the Ciociaro Club that was prepared for the occasion.

We hope see you all on December 6th, 2020 for the next Nativity presentation.

CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS PARTY

A big thank you to the Membership Committee and all those who helped make this event successful. It's always a wonderful way to celebrate the holiday season and our future Ciociaro Club members. This year we had over 300 future members and their families participate in this year's party. A heartfelt thank you!

Addolorata De Luca Leadership Scholarship

As a proud Ciociaro Club member for over 10 years, I am extremely thankful for the Club's donation of $3000 to my charity, The Addolorata De Luca Leadership Scholarship (www.adlscholarship.com), named after my Nonna Addolorata. This endowment acknowledges the selfless acts and determination of all immigrants in our community and supports current and future first and second-generation student leaders at the University of Windsor. The Ciociaro Club's donation is helping to keep the memory of our ancestors alive and is directly supporting student leaders who are making a difference in our community.

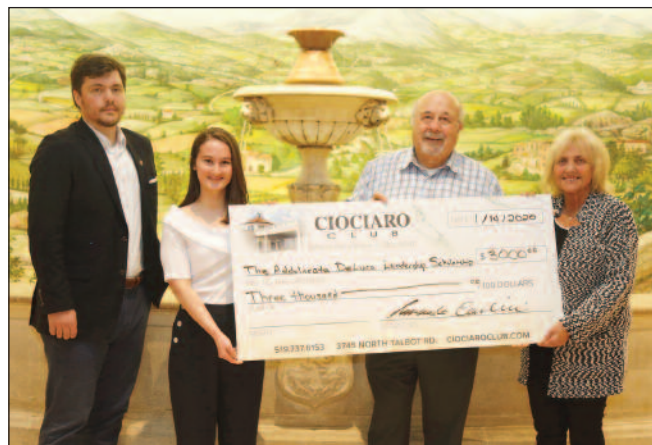

Sincerely,

FEDERAZIONE LAZIALE DELL'ONTARIO COMUNE DELL'ANNO 2019

On Friday, November 15, 2019 the Laziale of Ontario honoured the Comune di Casalvieri as “Comune dell’Anno for 2019”. Representing the Comune di Casalvieri were Sindaco L’Onorevole Franco Moscone, his wife along with town councillors and assessori. The evening was filled with food and camaraderie as over 600 Laziali from greater Toronto area and Ontario celebrated their heritage, their culture and their history. Representing the Ciociaro Club of Windsor were Board of Directors Luigi Vozza, John Maceroni, Massimo DeMenech and Recording Secretary Anna Vitti and members of the Casalverano / Sant’Onorio Society, Domenic and Rita Petrilli, Antonietta Petrozzi e Anna Vitti, who were well received by our “compaesani” in Toronto. Recording Secretary Anna Vitti and Domenic Petrilli, president of the Sant’Onorio Society presented Sindaco Franco Moscone with a plaque on behalf of the Ciociaro Club of Windsor and Sant’Onorio Society to commemorate the evening. Sindaco of Casalvieri Franco Moscone commented “Voglio salutare in particolare quelli di Casalvieri a Windsor-Essex. La vostra dedizione per mantenere la nostra cultura, la nostra storia e tradizione dimostra che il nostro spirito Ciociaro vivrà sempre. Siete sempre benvenuti a Casalvieri e speriamo di vederci presto”

BATTLE OF THE BRAINS

On Friday, January 24th, the Ciociaro Club was once again very proud to host and sponsor the 9th edition of the Battle of the Brains Trivia Challenge, which benefits the Alzheimer Society of Windsor-Essex County. This annual event, which involves a great dinner and a team pub trivia quiz competition, started at the Club in 2012 with 30 tables/teams (each with 8 players) taking part. From its successful start, the Battle of the Brains has rapidly grown in popularity, and is now the largest live charity quiz fundraiser in all of North America, with 148 teams and over 1,200 people attending in this latest edition, and with over $58,000 raised for the local Alzheimer Society. In addition, this year’s event was broadcast live on YouTube, where a video of the entire evening is still available for viewing on the Mack Flash Entertainment channel. Congratulations to quizmaster and host, Jack Ramieri, and to all of the fantastic organizers and volunteers, and heartfelt thanks go out to everyone who came out to support this wonderful cause and event!

CIOCIARIA: A HERITAGE YOU CAN BE PROUD OF!

Libero De Libero

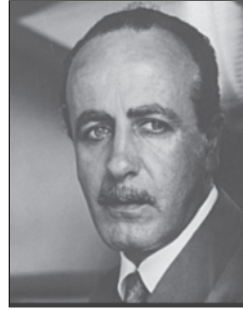

LIBERO DE LIBERO – Fondi, 10-09-1903; Roma, 04-07-1981

Gli anni formativi di Libero De Libero, furono quelli degli studi classici, da lui compiuti nella sua amata Valle Latina tra Ferentino e Alatri, con la guida di ottimi docenti, uno dei quali lo introdusse alla poesia di Dante, Leopardi, Baudelaire, i grandi poeti che lo «ubriacarono». Furono gli anni delle letture sistematiche e della vita di provincia, che resterà tra le memorie nostalgiche del poeta: «Al suo ambiente solitario, ricco di pollini segreti e di quotidiane visioni, io debbo un'eccezionale vicenda di sentimenti e di pensieri che m'hanno aiutato a diventare uomo.» Si laurea in Giurisprudenza a Roma. Nel 1928 fonda il quindicinale “Interplanetario”; vi collaborano Corrado Alvaro, Massimo Bontempelli e Alberto Moravia. La sua prima attività poetica si colloca nell'ambito dell'ermetismo. La prima raccolta, “Solstizio”, è pubblicata da Ungaretti sulle pagine di Novissima, altre raccolte sono Proverbi (1937), Testa (1938), Eclisse (1940). Anche dopo la guerra la produzione di poeta, narratore e saggista (culminata nei saggi Mafai, 1949; I volti di Masaccio, 1956; Maccari, 1976), è di vasto respiro. Numerosi i suoi contributi volti a chiarire aspetti e problemi del tempo della Scuola romana, di cui è fra i protagonisti in campo letterario, a contatto con i maggiori avvenimenti artistici del tempo. Ha lasciato interessanti memorie della “terza saletta” del Caffè Aragno, di cui era assiduo frequentatore. E' tra gli estimatori del gruppo di Via Cavour (con Ungaretti, Sinigalli, Falqui). Dal 1935 al 1938, De Libero dirige la Galleria della Cometa, in veste di direttore artistico. Con Enrico Falqui cura, dal 1940 al 1942, l'almanacco di “Beltempo” per le Edizioni della Cometa (che fonda e dirige), nelle cui collane appaiono tra l'altro libri di Bontempelli (Introduzione all'Apocalisse), Savinio (Tragedia dell'infanzia), Beccarla (Adamo). Nel 1981 appare un interessante libro di memorie dal titolo Roma 1935. Egli non interruppe mai i rapporti artistici con la Ciociaria, terra d'origine ed ispiratrice delle sue composizioni, frequentando artisti ed intellettuali nel capoluogo ciociaro, soliti incontrarsi presso la galleria “La Saletta”.

The educational years of Libero De Libero were those during his classical studies, which he attended in his beloved Valle Latina, found between Ferentino and Alatri, just near Frosinone. He was blessed with the guidance of excellent academics, one of which introduced him to Dante, Leopardi and Baudelaire, the big names who greatly influenced him into poetry. He, himself declared that it was in this part of Ciociaria that he became a mature man. De Libero graduated in Law in Rome. In 1928 he founded the fortnightly "Interplanetary", in which Corrado Alvaro, Bontempelli and Alberto Moravia collaborated. His first poetic work is part of Hermeticism. The first collection, "Solstice", is published by Ungaretti on the pages of 'Novissima'. Other collections are Proverbs (1937), Head (1938), Eclipse (1940). Even after the war the production of poet, novelist and essayist (culminated in Mafai essays, 1949; The faces of Masaccio, 1956; Maccari, 1976), is of expansive scale. Many are his contributions to clarify aspects and problems of the times of the Roman School, of which he is one of the protagonists in literature, in contact with the major artistic events of the time. He left interesting memories of the "third little room" of the Caffè Aragno, of which he was a frequent visitor. He is among the fans of the group of Via Cavour (Ungaretti, Sinigalli, Falqui). From 1935 to 1938, De Libero directed the Galleria della Cometa, as artistic director. With Henry Falqui he cared, from 1940 to 1942, for the almanac of "Beltempo" for the Editions of the Comet (which he founded and directed), in whose series appear among others, books of Bontempelli (Introduction to the Apocalypse), Savinio (Childhood Tragedy) and Beccarla (Adam). In 1981, he published an interesting memoir titled Rome 1935. He never interrupted his artistic connections with Ciociaria, his region of origin and inspiring of his many compositions, mingling with artists and intellectuals in the Provincial Capital, usually meeting in the gallery “La Saletta”.

CHEF'S CORNER

GOURMET MUSHROOM RISOTTO

Ingredients:

6 cups chicken broth, divided
3 tablespoons olive oil, divided
1 pound portobello mushrooms, thinly sliced
1 pound white mushrooms, thinly sliced
2 shallots, diced
1 1/2 cups Arborio rice
1/2 cup dry white wine
sea salt to taste
freshly ground black pepper to taste
3 tablespoons finely chopped chives
1/2 cup freshly grated parmesan cheese

Directions:

In a saucepan, warm the broth over low heat. Warm 2 tablespoons olive oil in a large skillet over medium-high heat. Stir in the mushrooms and cook until soft, about 3 minutes. Remove mushrooms and their liquid and set aside.

Add 1 tablespoon olive oil to skillet and stir in the 2 diced shallots. Cook 1 minute. Add rice stirring to coat with oil, about 2 minutes. When the rice has taken on a pale colour, pour in the wine, stirring constantly until wine is fully absorbed. Add 1/2 cup broth to the rice and stir until broth is absorbed. Continue adding broth 1/2 cup at a time, stirring continuously, until the liquid is absorbed and the rice is “al dente”, about 15 to 20 minutes.

Remove from heat, and stir in the mushrooms with their liquid, the butter, the 3 tbsps of chives and the parmesan. Season with salt and pepper to taste. Enjoy!!
